REFUSES PENSION OF $15,000.

Greentown, Ind., Man Says He Opposes War.

Washington, Nov. 22.—An accumulated pension amounting to $15,000 which according to proof now on record in the bureau of pensions is due William Elliott of Greentown, Ind., has been refused. Information to that effect was received by Commissioner Warner from the agency at Indianapolis to which Mr. Elliott is said to have sent a letter declining to accept not the pension as well. The reason given by Mr. Elliott's refusal is that he has conscientious scruples against it.
His letter stated that he is strongly opposed to war. His record on file in the war department, it is said, shows that he was an exceptionally good soldier and was wounded several times in battle. The case will be investigated by the pension bureau.

Was a Relative of Andrew Jackson.

Mrs. Charles Brown, aged 87 years, one of the oldest and best known residents of Castleton, and a distant relative of President Andrew Jackson, died November 16 of paralysis.
Mrs. Brown was born in Clinton, N.
Y., July 12, 1818. After her marriage to Charles Brown she went to Castleton and lived there for fifty-five years, and in the house where her death occurred, for forty-eight years. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ira Stevens, of Poultney, and a son, Charles H.
Brown, of Castleton.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

The question of a new town building in Morrisville is being discussed.

The Rev. N. S. Moore, of Cromwell, Conn., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Congregational church at Newfane.

It is probable that Jacob Riis, the well known writer and reformer, will deliver a lecture in Brattleboro December 13 under the auspices of the Brattleboro Woman's club.

Jacksonville farmers have fared well the past year. There has been a great call for cows at very high prices, sheep and wool are high, and apples are plentiful. They are selling now from $2 to $2.50 a barrel and the price is going up.

The Rev. Dr. C. H. Spaulding of the American Baptist Publication Society, who spoke in the Baptist church at Brattleboro recently, announced that a Brattleboro young man, who desired his name withheld, had given $450 for a colporteur wagon to be used in distributing literature throughout this state.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phelps of South Dorset, took dinner with Mr. and Mrs.
William Root, of East Rupert, November 10, it being the 55th wedding anniversary of both Mr. and Mrs. Phelps and Mr. and Mrs. Root. The two couples have dined together every year since they were married alternately as far as possible.

David Crawford, of Burlington, suffered a serious injury Thursday morning while cutting sapling spruces on the mountain. He was bending one over with his left hand, and brought the axe down on the wrist instead of the tree. He had to be carried about seven miles before he could get treatment, and was very weak from loss of blood. The physicians hope to save the hand, although the arteries and muscles were all cut.

The total enrollment of scholars in the town of Rockingham for the past five years has been as follows: 1900, 1,194; 1901, 1,247; 1902, 1,250; 1903, 1,277; 1904, 1,286. The enrollment for the present year has not been completed, but will not show much change from the last year. The list of teachers this year numbers forty. There are six rural schools and four grades at Saxtons River, the remainder being in Bellows Falls.

George W. Potter has been admitted to the Vermont soldiers' home, Bennington, from Rutland. He served during the rebellion in the Ninth Vermont volunteers. There are now 114 members at the home, nine of whom are on leave of absence. It is the largest number in the history of the institution, which is considerably crowded, with several applications on file from different towns.
The general health of the inmates is good.

THEY MUST ALL GO.
In No Other Way Can Confidence Be Brought Back.

But a serious question yet remains: Whether without a complete change of management the company can ever win back popular confidence. Obviously Mr.
Perkins must surrender his connection either with the New York Life or with the house of Morgan. No man can safely subject himself to such temptation to sacrifice the welfare of the policyholders to his private gain. Mr.
McCall's present attitude may be warranted; but we cannot raise much enthusiasm for a man who has to be terribly scourged before he can

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable canker-bearer. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists.

see that the maintenance of a corrupt lobby at Albany is a grave menace to the welfare both of his company and his country. The directors of the Mutual are becoming aware that the Mc-Curdy regime must end. The directors of the New York Life may well ask themselves whether McCall also should not go.—N. Y. Evening Post.

Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would Excellent Egg Producer.

Poultrymen are probably no more honest than other people, but when they say a certain poultry food is a good article and back their statement by liberal purchases they are evidently telling the truth. H. M. Maxfield, the present member of the House of Representatives from Johnson, Vt., writes as follows: "I have sold Page's Perfected Poultry Food for several years and find it a good seller. I am told by poultrymen that it is an excellent egg producer."

Rutland State Accounts Audited.

State Auditor Horace F. Graham, of Craftsbury, recently examined the state accounts in Rutland, the examination covering the books of the last six months and being the largest audit that the state official has ever made in Rutland county.

The outlay in the accounts covered by the county clerk over $4,062.28. The sheriff's account was $758.92. The city clerk's account was $1,112.00. The city clerk had 283 bills of cost, amounting to $2, $42.47. He collected, in fines and costs, $1,880.31, making $962.16 that the state is behind on this count.

There were 181 bills of cost of justices of the peace. These, added to the 183 of the city clerk, make a total of 364 bills for the entire county.
